

I think that K-Love is good to our community because we as christians love to wake up and listen to music on the radio thats not all full of curse words and what not. Another reason I think that if they take it off the radio we wont get to have updates and who knows that radio station could save one person form giong to hell. I hope you consider this and keep K-love on the radio.